

Comprehensive Privacy Policy for Citrine Programming Language and Related Products

Effective Date: December 11, 2024

At Citrine, your privacy is of utmost importance. This Privacy Policy outlines our commitment to protecting your information and maintaining complete transparency about how we handle data. In summary: we do not collect, track, or share your data in any way.

1. No Data Collection: Your Usage Remains Entirely Private

- Programming Language Usage: The Citrine programming language does not collect, log, or track any data from its users. Your usage of the language is entirely private.
 - Games and Products: Games and other products developed by Citrine or its creator, Gabor Mooij, do not collect or store user data, including but not limited to gameplay data, device information, or location data.
 - Website: The official Citrine website does not use cookies, trackers, or analytics tools. No personal information is collected, stored, or processed when you visit the website.

2. No Logging: Ensuring Your Freedom from Surveillance

Citrine systems, including its language runtime, website, and associated products, do not log user activity. We believe that privacy means freedom from surveillance.

3. No Sharing of Information: Total Confidentiality Guaranteed

Because we do not collect any data, there is nothing to share. Citrine does not sell, share, or distribute user information to third parties under any circumstances.

4. Third-Party Services: Limited Interactions Beyond Citrine

We strive to minimize reliance on third-party services. However, if you interact with third-party services (e.g., through links to external websites), their privacy policies will apply. Citrine has no control over and is not responsible for the privacy practices of these third-party services.

5. Your Rights: Privacy and Security by Default

As Citrine does not collect or process your personal data, you are inherently guaranteed the following rights:

- Right to Privacy: Your data remains completely private.

- Right to Data Protection: Since no data is collected, there is no risk of data breaches or unauthorized access.

6. Policy Updates: Transparent Changes if Necessary

This Privacy Policy may be updated occasionally to reflect changes in our practices or for legal reasons. Updates will be posted on the official Citrine website, and the "Effective Date" will be revised accordingly.

7. Contact Information: We Are Here to Answer Your Questions
